DISCUSSION: The immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and a subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Associate Commissioner for Examinations. The matter came before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reconsider. The motion was dismissed. The matter is again before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reconsider. The motion will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a church. It seeks classification of the beneficiary as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(4), to serve as a religious translator. The director denied the petition determining that the petitioner had failed to establish the beneficiary's two years of continuous religious work experience. The director also found that the petitioner had failed to establish that it had made a valid job offer or that it had the ability to pay the proffered wage. The Associate Commissioner affirmed the decision of the director on appeal.

On motion, filed May 4, 1999, the petitioner disputed the findings of the director and the Associate Commissioner. That motion was dismissed.

On motion, filed June 1, 2000, the petitioner requested that the Service reconsider its decisions. The petitioner stated that they need the services of the beneficiary.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(3) requires that a motion for reconsideration state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. A motion to reconsider must also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(4) states that a motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed.

The motion to reconsider does not contain precedent decisions to show that the previous decisions were based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. Further, the motion does not establish that the previous decisions were incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the previous decisions.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. That burden has not been met. Accordingly, the previous decisions of the director and the Associate Commissioner will not be disturbed, and the motion will be dismissed.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
